Iron Cross Closed Labor Day Weekend

Iron Cross will be closed on the following dates for Labor Day Weekend. September 3rd, 4th, and 5th. Our fall schedule does start on September 1st and 2nd for Thursday and Friday Classes. Tuesday and Wednesday classes start on 6th and 7th, and finally Monday classes start on September 12th. (Please remember that the reason for not having a pro-rate is due to the fact that we base our tuition on a 46 week year.) With that said, there is no day of the week that receives less than 47 classes if you remain in the program for an entire year.) Also remember that if you would like to receive some form of discount on the fall semester, you can receive 15% off by paying the whole tuition for all four months in advance. (That is September through December)
